

Pamela Suett

Pamela Suett is the ACE Westchester/Rockland regional representative, and is the Director of Recruitment at New York Medical College School of Health Sciences and Practice in Valhalla, NY. She was the ACE institutional representative for more than 5 years before taking on the regional position and becoming a member of the ACE state board of directors. The ACE Westchester/Rockland regional is a very active region with two very-well attended professional development programs in the fall and spring and the very special Carol Russett Award luncheon and presentation in April. Recent panel discussions and presentations include: Women Making a Difference in Higher Education (Dr. Belinda Miles, President of Westchester Community College), Leadership Without Authority: Leading Teams from Within. One of the primary objectives of the region is to provide affordable education and networking programs to women at all levels in higher education.
