

Karen V. Zuill, CPA
Controller, Hartwick College

As controller for Hartwick College, Karen V. Zuill provides leadership and oversight for the daily operations of the financial and general accounting areas within the college ensuring compliance with generally accepted accounting principles (GAAP), the IRS and any other applicable regulations. She plans, coordinates and acts as the primary contact for the annual financial audit and also the Uniform Guidance audit of federal funds.

Prior to becoming the controller at Hartwick, Karen worked for over sixteen years in healthcare in accounting and management roles. She holds a BBA in Accounting from Siena College and has been a Certified Public Accountant since 1994.

Karen has served as the treasurer for the network for since January 2015 and also as the institutional representative from January 2015 - May 2017. She is a 4H club leader and is very active in her community. She lives in Davenport, NY with her three children.